INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS

(Selection and Adoption)

The Deerfield Community School Board recognizes its legal responsibility for the selection and adoption of all instructional materials used in the school district.

The responsibility for reviewing and selecting instructional materials is delegated to the district administrator and the professional staff of the schools.

The selection of materials will be governed by the criteria set forth in the School Library Bill of Rights adopted by the American Association of School Librarians and the Library Bill of Rights adopted by the American Library Association.

The Deerfield School District does not discriminate against pupils on the basis of sex, race, religion, national origin, ancestry, creed, pregnancy, marital or parental status, sexual orientation, or physical, mental, emotional, or learning disability or handicap in its educational programs, activities, or instructional materials.
