Retirement Leaf

Wisconsin Deferred Compensation Program (WDC)

A Wisconsin Deferred Compensation Program (WDC) account can help you save more for the retirement you want — in addition to your WRS pension. The WDC 457(b) plan offers a host of benefits that can help you work toward your retirement income goals, including:

- The ability to make before-tax and/or Roth after-tax contributions
- Complimentary Retirement Readiness Reviews¹
- A wide variety of investment options
- Competitive fees and tiered flat fees
- No 10% early withdrawal penalty

The WDC's Program Highlights brochure explains how the WDC can help you save, invest and prepare for retirement. Please note that this document will open in a new tab. The Program Highlights provide a complete overview of the WDC, including:

- Plan features and rules
- Fees
- Local service
- Financial wellness, education, and planning

It's easy to get started with the WDC

You can enroll online by obtaining a plan enrollment code (PEC) from your employer or by calling the WDC at (877) 457-WDCP (9327). Representatives are available Monday through Friday, 7 a.m.-9 p.m. Central time, and Saturdays, 8 a.m.-4:30 p.m. Central time.

Please note: If you have an existing WDC account and have changed employers, contact the WDC at (877) 457-WDCP (9327) for assistance.

You can make changes at any time by contacting the WDC or by logging in to your account at wdc457.org. Enrollment and deferral changes require approximately 30 days to take effect (per federal 457 regulations). You can also monitor and change your investment selections at any time. After you set up your account, you can get help from your local WDC Retirement Plan Advisor. Click here to schedule a meeting after you have enrolled.

For additional information about the WDC, visit wdc457.org before you log in or create an account.
